Dear Ms. Cassar:

This letter serves to verify that St. Clair County Community College is a public community college authorized to operate by the State of Michigan Constitution. Therefore, St. Clair County Community College is exempt from licensure to operate a postsecondary educational institution in the State of Michigan.

As such, St. Clair County Community College is also exempt from program approval by this office. St. Clair County Community College is operating in good standing.

Please feel free to contact me at 517.241.6806 with any questions or concerns that you may have.

Sincerely,
